Administrative Information

Conditions Governing Access

This collection is open for research. The finding aid includes links to stream most interviews online via Oral History of American Music's (OHAM) AV access system, Aviary. Yale users can login to Aviary using their Yale University ID, to stream these interviews without restriction. Other users are able to request access to interviews directly through Aviary. For access instructions, and to request transcripts of an interview, see OHAM's website.

Some interviews may be restricted. Access to these restricted interviews may only be granted to a patron who has first obtained direct permission from the interviewee or their estate.

Some interviews may not have been digitized or are otherwise not available to stream online. However, these interviews may have been transcribed. Please see contact OHAM for more details.

Conditions Governing Use

Rights and permissions for Oral History of American Music materials vary between individual interviews. Researchers wishing to publish or broadcast Oral History of American Music materials are responsible for obtaining direct authorization from copyright holders: generally, the interviewees or their estates.

For this collection, rights for each interview are jointly owned by New Music USA and the interviewee in each instance.

Preferred Citation

NMUSA, NewMusicBox Interviews, Oral History of American Music, in the Music Library of Yale University.

Processing Information

The computer files in this collection were transferred to Yale via File Transfer Protocol. Where appropriate, .mp4 surrogates of each video file were created as access copies, to enable online streaming.

Physical Characteristics and Technical Requirements

The computer files in this collection incorporate video (.mov and .mp4) and audio content (.ogg and .wav). Streaming versions of each digital video file have been provided for access.

Content Description

108 interviews as of September 2, 2021. Interviews conducted for NewMusicBox, the online magazine for New Music USA.

Arrangement

The collection is arranged alphabetically by surname of interviewee.
